

Dear Andrew

7/28/12

I wish you every success in your new venture. You are a very talented young man with a personality to match. I predict that you will achieve great things.

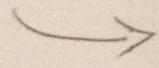

I am very happy that you got me started in C.C.D. Now I am taking an on line course from the diocese - you got me started, thank you.

I will miss you and your beautiful music. Please keep in touch. I'd like to hear how you are doing. And remember, "You be Careful out There,"

(I tell that to my granddaughter)

Always
Barbara Grace

Andrew,
I now know how to say
"thank you" two different ways
in Turkish!

teşekkür ederim
sâgol

I wanted to tell you how much I appreciate all the time and effort you have given to prepare me for "the job". We work so well together and I know that somehow this will not be the last time we collaborate.

Enjoy your adventure. You deserve new goals and you have certainly set the bar very high for yourself. We, here in your rear view mirror, will truly miss you and your unique humor and wonderful approach to life.

Please try to write a few words
to commemorate your fabulous journey.
I wish all the best for you!

A world of thanks to you!

Love,
Marie

Dear Andrew:

Your spirit is sensational
and we received so much from you.

Thank you and good luck in your future endeavors.

Lone,

Wendy, Michael, Jacquie & Jeff Davis

Just to say

"good-bye"

and to wish you a world
of happy new beginnings!

You'll Be Missed

I do not only think of you
as my church organist or choir director but as a friend.
We have had some laughs during masses, which I am sure will not be the same with someone else.
Good-luck with everything, I'm sure you'll do great! I'll miss ya!
Love, Lauren ☺

Dear Andrew 7/16/12

I want to wish you every success in your new position, in Turkey, no less!! It was only a matter of time before others saw your great talent and a personality to go along with it. It saddens me that you are leaving, but there is a whole world out there for you to explore. Keep in touch from time to time, so we know what you are doing.

My hope for your every success.

Barbara Gracie
P.S. A World Traveler good for you. I hope to speak to you before you leave to again wish you much success and happiness.
